Answers:

A1. Form, of any kind, emanates out from the Godhead into the heavens and lower heavens, and into the third dimension in particular, without light. Form comes to Earth void of light. The chakras are no different.

A2. All of the soul's seed-light's vibrational codes, which prescribed life on Earth, remained hidden away. The important information these codes carried was pivotal to every lesson and to every influence guiding the individual's life path.

A3. The Love Cocoon prevented vibrations outside of love from resonating with the base chakra. Only love—and nothing but love—was able to pierce through the many protective layers that encased the seed-light. These layers provided fortification to the base chakra and made it impossible for all but the strongest vibrations of love to have any influence. The base chakra did not open and the seed-light of the soul was not released until love dissolved the protective layers of the love cocoon.

A4. Love to open the base chakra comes primarily from external sources, but can also come from within.

A5. Love created within the incarnate individual.

A6. Any light-worker, intent on helping others with their spiritual awakenings, must first himself be fully awake. That is, he has created enough love within his own body to open his own base chakra and initiate his own spiritual journey. Thereafter, he must take all the steps necessary to achieve enlightenment and solidify his connection with his soul. The enlightened incarnation is then vested with the power to channel heavenly love into the base chakra of other individuals to contribute to their openings and awakenings.

A7. Shaktipat

A8. Because black light frequencies are indigenous to both the Earth and the base chakra, the Earth's light and love resonate directly with the base chakra. Earth's light can pierce through the protective cocoon's layers of love to open it and enter.

A9. The spiritual devotee needs to be prepared and in harmony with her soul by doing spiritual practices such as meditation, prayer, crystal layouts, yoga, tai chi, chanting, and more to raise her vibration sufficiently.

A10. Problems are easily avoided if the devotee trusts his own intuitive sense about what feels right and pursues his spiritual growth at his own pace.
