- A3. Conscious Awakening is an event of the third eye, which is quite dormant at the time of the opening of the Base Chakra.
- A4. Conscious Awakening requires that the third eye chakra be open, empowered, and empowered with a significant quantity and high enough quality of empowerment frequencies.
- A5. The devotee is not likely to recognize the actual moment of the opening of the Base Chakra. If the devotee has affirmed the choice to be on the spiritual path and makes enough free choices to be loving, the base chakra will open when the love accumulated is strong enough.
- A6. To raise your vibration! The spiritual path amounts to doing spiritual practices, including crystal layouts, meditation, yoga, tai chi, being with other spiritual devotees, visiting the Guru, and willfully practicing love, for the purpose of raising your vibration in anticipation of achieving enlightenment.
